Bus operators must continue to comply with conditions of license including:

- i. Service providers must ensure they charge fares as approved;
- ii. Bus operators must charge fares appropriately based on the distance traveled and refrain from a tendency of charging full trip fares to passengers embarking or disembarking at intermediate bus stops;
- iii. Bus owners should closely supervise their bus crew to ensure observance of safety and conduct which is acceptable to the public;
- iv. Bus operators must ensure that passengers are always given bus tickets that are properly filled to reflect the amount paid as a bus fare;
- v. The fares have been computed on the basis of commuter buses with carrying capacity of at least 50 passengers; hence the need to encourage operators to use large capacity buses;
- vi. The computation of the new tariff has considered 0.5% of levy payable to the Authority and therefore it will not be part of operational cost to transporters.
